Your Tour at The Chocolatarium

Visual Story

The Tour happens at The Chocolatarium. The outside of the building looks like this.

You will be welcomed by a Tour Guide.

They will wear an apron and will be with you for the whole tour.

When you arrive, you will check-in at the till.

The Tour of Chocolate happens in three rooms and lasts 90 minutes.

Jungle Room

Factory Kitchen

Tasting Room

There will be a maximum of 16 people in your group.

You can ask your tour guide for a chocolate fidget toy to have with you during the tour.

In the first room, the Jungle, you will learn where cacao comes from.

In the Jungle you may hear some background jungle sounds like rain and birds.

In the second room, the Factory Kitchen, you can make your own chocolate bar.

You can choose one of many moulds with a Scottish theme to make your chocolate bar.

There are many toppings to choose from to decorate your chocolate bar.

In the Factory Kitchen, you will also learn how chocolate is made from cacao beans.

The Kitchen can be warm and may have machine noises.

In the third room, the Tasting Room, you can smell and taste chocolate from different countries.

If you do not want to taste something, you can say “No thank you”.

If you need a break at any point, you can tell your tour guide and step out in the cloakroom.

At the end of the Tour, you get your chocolate bar to take home.

After the tour, you can visit the shop or exit via our main door.

We hope you enjoy your tour!
